

Are you a wildcat?

Wildcats look just like a tabby housecat. Their coats have tan and brown stripes and they have golden or green eyes. They look friendly but they are not. They are very dangerous and very powerful. They are big fighters if they think another animal or a person is in their area. They snarl, flatten their ears, arch their backs, and curl back their lips to show their long, sharp teeth. They will attack, scratch, and bite if they feel threatened or afraid. When a wildcat is angry it is good to stay far away!

Some people are like wildcats. They seem to be friendly; but when they become angry, they say and do things that are hurtful. God wants his children to be kind to one another and to control their anger. When we are angry we need to talk about how we feel inside instead of hurting someone around us. How about you? Have you ever gotten angry with your brother or your sister? How do you act when you are angry? God Says “And don’t sin by letting anger gain control over you. Don’t let the sun go down while you are still angry, for anger gives a mighty foothold to the Devil.

What is something that you can do if you are feeling angry to make sure you are not hurting someone else?
