

Character Quest..Humility

Peacocks love to show off. Male peafowl or peacocks, have long, colorful tails. They fan out their beautiful tail feathers to attract families. But when peacocks strut and show off, their proud actions can also attract tigers looking for lunch!

James 4:6 tells us that pride can also be our downfall. When we show off, we are saying, "look at ME! See how great I am!" God wants us to tell others how great He is, not how great we are.

"God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

James 4:6

God warns us not to think we are better than others. Instead, He wants us to be thankful to Him when good things happen in our lives. He wants us to be glad for what He gives us and share those gifts!

Cool Stats:

The peacock lives about 15 years.

A peacock's tail is 1 foot longer than its body.

A peacock's tail contains over 200 feathers.

Female peafowl are called peahens.

Peacocks spread out their tail to attract a mate.

Peacocks have very loud mating calls that sound like a scream.