Be Thankful For The Gospel

“All scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work” II Timothy 3:16-17

The story is told of an agnostic college professor who visited the islands of Fiji. One day. He critically remarked to an elderly chief, “You’re a great leader, but it’s a pity you’ve been taken in by those foreign missionaries. They only want to get rich through you. No one believes the Bible anymore. People are tired of the threadbare story of Christ dying on a cross for the sins of mankind. They know better now. I’m sorry you’ve been so foolish as to accept their story.”

The old chief’s eyes flashed as he answered, “Do you see that great rock over there? On it we used to smash the heads of our victims. And there,” he said, pointing, “notice the furnace next to the rock? It was in that oven that we formerly roasted the bodies of our enemies before we ate them. If it had not been for those good missionaries and the love of Jesus that changes us from cannibals into Christians, you’d never leave this place alive! You’d better thank the Lord for the gospel; otherwise, we’d already be feasting on you. If it weren’t for the Bible, we’d be having you for supper!”

How about you? Have you seen the transforming power of God in other people’s lives? Did you know that only God has the power to transform those in your life? Pray for those that God has placed in your life today. You don’t know how He wants to transform them!
